Tuesday's Voting and Majorities Run High

WATSON'S VOTE IS HIGH

Charleroi Man Elected Commissioner By Big Vote—Woodward Loses For Sheriff By About 2,600 Votes—Barnum a Winner.

The Republican victory at the polls Tuesday was a veritable landslide, the county ticket concerned. Pluralities ranged from 2,500 to 5,500. John O. Watson of North Charleroi lead the ticket in the commissioner fight according to the figures available from 130 of the 145 precincts. A. P. Barnum is re-elected commissioner as a Democratic member.

Dr. W. H. Alexander, a candidate for treasurer leads in votes with 9,329 and also has the biggest plurality. Hon. Henry W. Temple is next high man with a vote of 9,181 and a plurality over Carl Gibson, Esq., of Monongahela of 4,671.

S. L. Woodward of Charleroi is defeated for sheriff by Frank B. Wickerham, the latter's plurality being in 130 precincts 2,623. There were no contests worth while for clerk of courts, coroner, prothonotary, register and director of the poor. Following are figures for several offices from 130 precincts:

Congress

ENTIRE REPUBLICAN TICKET IS ELECTED IN THE BOROUGH

WOMAN SUFFRAGE VOTE IN THE STATE CLOSE, LATE NEWS SHOWS

Returns From All Parts Cuts Down Lead Claimed by Anti-Western Counties Favorable.

While the women suffrage amendment seems to have been defeated in Pennsylvania, the vote against was not nearly as large as at first reported. The lead claimed by the opponents to the measure in the eastern counties and in the central counties this morning early dwindled considerably when the actual count of ballots was reported.
Nearly all the western counties excepting perhaps Lawrence, Greene and Allegheny favored the woman suffrage amendment. In Allegheny county, contrary to all predictions, the votewas close a fact proven by early morning returns. In Philadelphia the heavy vote against that was announced over the slate has been much reduced.
The late news is that the vote is close on the question, with the balance in favor of the noes.

CHARTIERS WORK TO BE COMPLETED

New Railroad to be in Operation Some Time the Coming Year

TRACK LAYING IS PLANNED

That the Chartiers Southern railroad will be in operation some time next year and that work will be pushed throughout this winter to accomplish this end is the belief of persons who are in touch with affairs of this road.

A huge cavein at the cut on the Boone farm in Peters township about two miles from Van Eman, the latter place being the point at which the Chartiers Southern joins the Chartiers Valley line of the Pennsylvania railroad, resulted in about 45,000 cubic yards of earth sliding into the cul-Brocklehurst & Potter company has had a force of men at work for four weeks removing this. It will be about two weeks longer before it is completed.

It is pointed out that the promoters of the Chartiers Southern must intend to take immediate steps toward laying the track and the actual opening up of the line, or they would not have this cavein removed at this time.

It is reported in contracting circles that the contract for the actual laying of the track is soon to be awarded.

Should J. V. Thompson, the Uniontown financier, secure money to straighten out his financial difficulties it would undoubtedly have an effect on the Chartiers Southern as he has large holdings along its route.

Only Warm Contest Develops in Election of Two-Year Term Councilman

HOME CANDIDATES STRONG

Watson and Woodward Given Hearty Support—Woman Suffrage Favored in Local Vote—Other Amendments Draw Out Good Vote.

The entire Republican borough ticket was elected at the general election Tuesday. In one place only was there any contest worth while, it being in the two-year councilmanic term. Substantial support was given the Republican county ticket except in places where there were home candidates among the Democrats. John O. Watson of North Charleroi, a Republican nominee for county commissioner led the ticket in the vote for contested offices and S. L. Woodward of Charleroi, Democratic candidate for sheriff was next high man, being given splendid support locally.

The suffrage amendment was favored in Charleroi by a majority of 55 votes. Only in the first and the fourth precincts were there adverse votes on this mooted question. All the amendments were treated favorably by Charleroi voters.
Living up to expectations the total vote was high, running to 1,300. The heaviest was in the first precinct where the total number cast was 369.
In the second there were 284, while in the sixth precinct the surprising number of 168 was cast.

The newly elected borough officers are as follows:
Council (Four year term)—D. R.
Duvall, J. H. Hein, H. L. Swickey.
Council (Two year term)—W. H.
Calvert.
School director—John Campbell, W.
D. Pollock.

Auditor—Paul Ryland.
Constable—George Stabilein.
High constable—C. W. Albright.
In the four-term council contest the Republican candidates easily galloped away with honors. Capt. J. H.
Hein had high vote with 653 to his credit. H. L. Swickey ran next with 646 and D. R. Duvall third with 565.
Delbert Carson was nearest to Duvall with 402 votes.

An old fashioned contest developed in the election of a councilman for the two-year term. W. H. Calvert won by the narrow margin of three votes over Harry P. Jacobs, accord-

PROGRESSIVES NEXT YEAR

Chairman McCombs of the Democratic National Committee is quoted as saying that "the majority of the Progressives will be found voting with the Democratic party in 1916." Where Mr. McCombs gets the basis for his claims is a mystery, says the Pittsburgh Gazette Times. Expecting that they were both determined to defeat the Republican party in 1912 there was little point of agreement between the Democrats and Progressives. On paramount issues they were about as divergent as they well could be. From the time the Wilson administration and the Democratic majority in congress had been in control long enough to demonstrate their incapacity leading Progressives and several Progressive conventions have been held in their criticism of the New Freedom.

Admittedly there has been a return of 2,000,000 and possibly more Progressives to the Republican ranks.
The attitude of the remainder necessarily is a matter of conjecture until affairs begin to shape up for next year. But the position of such of the old Progressive leaders as Col.
Roosevelt, George W. Perkins and Gov. Johnson of California with regard to the Wilson administration is not in doubt. The Underwood tariff's failure to stimulate industry or reduce the cost of living and the administration's foreign policy, both as to Europe and Mexico, have been denounced no more bitterly by Republicans than by Progressives. The narrow partisanship of the Wilson regime and its disregard of civil service reform have been equally unsatisfactory to Progressives. On what possible ground, therefore, can Chairman McCombs count upon a majority of Progressives turning in for another four years of the very government, economic principles and methods which for nearly three years past they have protested against?

It is conceivable that a considerable number of Progressives may elect once more to play the role of assistant Democrats by nominating their own ticket and promulgating their own platform. This as a program of protest. Yet even as to that much depends upon events between now and next summer—upon the course of the Republican party upon the further blunders of Democracy at Washington, and in a measure upon developments of the war and collateral consequences to the United States. But the proposition of Progressives who will cross lots and go into the Democratic camp, accepting political doctrines and practices still more objectionable to them than those of standpat Republicanism, is likely to be so small as not to amount to much in Chairman Mc-Combs' tabulations.

COOKING

Since our primitive ancestors squatted around the cookery pots after hunts for food stuffs, an inconceivable amount of effort has been expended in the practice of the art of preparing food. Considering the energy spent in experimentation the accumulative knowledge has not been extensive, says the state health commissioner.

Every member of the human race from early childhood to the grave now depends principally upon cookery food to maintain life.

It is not without reason that cookery is called an art. There is nothing which does more to build up and maintain good health than the proper preparation of food. It may be considered the first essential. It is commonly considered a menial task, yet in fact motherhood it is one of the most important.

Thanks to modern methods of transportation and commercial enterprise there has never been a time in the history of mankind when so vast a selection of food stuffs was at the disposal of all people. This would prove a large asset to the race, for a variety of foods well prepared serves to give a well balanced nourishment conducive to proper growth and sustenance of body and brain.
Improper cooked foods lead quickly to distress of body and mind than almost any other factor. Poverty, transience and dissipation can in many instances be traced to poor cooking.

Among the least expensive foods, we may find it well prepared, those which form a nourishing and tasteful diet. With the necessity for economy becoming more pressing as the population of the world increases, there is no one line of effort better worthy of study and attention than the science of economical and wholesome cooking—for a man is indeed what he eats.

Though in tabulation of votes the proposed constitutional amendment for woman suffrage failed, the vote was a victory. For the first time an expression of the people in Pennsylvania was taken on this momentous question. It won't be the last. Proponents of woman suffrage now have an intimate knowledge of the situation in Pennsylvania. They know their failures. And they know where the future fight must lie. Women were schooled in political conditions.
For woman suffrage to have passed in Pennsylvania at the present time might have had a bad effect, not only on government, but on this promising reform movement itself. The women of this state, having never until the present year engaged in any sort of political campaign, could not have expected to attain wonderful ends upon their first voting. Great reforms come slowly. Promises freely made can never be fulfilled on the spur of the moment. It takes time.
The vote on the suffrage issue was a victory because it won a very definite expression on the subject, because it brought to light the real sentiment of the present voting population, and because it gave women sadly needed experience in political affairs.

If this postoffice department we hear so much about really intends to effect improvements, it can and a good working basis without calling in service detectives. Rural service?—surely, that is one place.
But there are others. Town service generally might be improved and while remarks are in order, may it be advised that there is a good opportunity for the department to make a hit in supplying open mail boxes at railroad stations along this Monongahela valley. In Charleoi for instance to get a piece of mail on a particular train you have to put it in the postoffice—not in a mail box—on an average of 45 minutes ahead of train time. Exigencies of fate and business demands some times are such that prompter delivery is necessary. The only method we can obtain it is putting the letter on the train ourselves.
So to the railroad station we hie ourselves, mail in hand, to waste valuable minutes waiting for that mail train. If Uncle Sam could be induced to establish an open box—meaning one that is opened when the train approaches—he would perform a service that would tickle his patrons more than half a dozen of the so-called popular moves of the day.

Tuesday's results were eminently pleasing. Without a break the entire Republican ticket went through, owing to the hearty support given it by the reunited party. The vote was especially large for what might be termed an "off year" and this made the outcome all the more pleasing.
It evidences a sure return to Republican principles at the coming presidential election.

There is a law on the books, so they say, to prevent the excessive use of any annoying cut-out by autoists on the highway or in town. It is a pity the law is not enforced in Charleoi.

Submission to the will of the majority has always been one of the virtue principles of American government. Those who would overthrow it for the gratification of their own wild ambitions are not good citizens. Arizona Tribune.

The man who is always bragging about his own achievements wouldn't be so full of himself if he was bragging about ours.

No matter how home with a black eye because he let the other man do all the talking.

When you hear some girls trying to play the piano you realize how true it is that a little learning is a dangerous thing.

The trouble with the optimist who is always lucky because he says, "Oh well, you can't take it with you when you die." is that he is always trying to relieve you of your burden of small change so that you will be light enough to fly in case anything happened to you.

Every now and then you see a widow who acts as if she was too bashful to walk on the same side of the street with a man.

No married man can brag that he has never made a mistake. Even if he did get the right woman he often has to have her down on the back.

Have you ever noticed how much noise the other fellow makes when you say anything? Well, do you need any stronger argument to make you keep your mouth shut?

A man can get 400 love letters from her before he marries her, but he never discovers that she doesn't know how to spell until after he has been married for awhile.

When a man is alive his wife thinks that he is so insignificant that she is surprised that a fly doesn't step on him and crush him. But when he dies she gets the idea that he was so important that she has to go into debt for five years to see that he gets the big gest funeral in town.

WIVES AND MOTHERS

Have you ever stopped to realize how much the health of your family depends upon you? For instance, diet is a great factor in health and you are responsible for it, then again when any member of your family gets into a run-down condition, when the children are delicate, cross and ailing, when somebody takes cold and develops a cough, they look to you for help. Do you know that our local druggists Piper's Drug Store have a non-secret constitutional remedy known as Vinol which he guarantees for just such conditions. Many families in this vicinity have found it so reliable they are never without it.

NEIGHBORLY ADVICE

Freely Given by a Charleoi Citizen When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains, that persons advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a Charleoi resident.

Mrs. D. F. Worthington, 814 Mc-Kean avenue, Charleoi says: "I was troubled by backache for years.
The pains were so intense it made me sick all over. In the morning when I tried to get up, I was worse.
Wherever I stooped, a sharp pain darted through me and I could hardly catch my breath. Often it was just as though a knife was being stuck into me. I was tired all the time. I had rheumatic pains throughout my body. My feet became swollen.
Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Piper's Drug Store relieved me of all symptoms of the trouble. I now take Doan's Kidney Pills once or twice a year as a kidney tonic and they always help me." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Worthington had. Foster-

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA AGOG OVER BIG GAME

Washington and Jefferson University Of Pittsburg Struggle Coming Saturday To Attract Immense Crowd to Forbes Field.

All western Pennsylvania is agog over the football game at Pittsburg Saturday between University of Pittsburg and Washington & Jefferson college and the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game in the state is looked for. It will be played at Forbes field, the home of the Pittsburg National League baseball club, which has a capacity of about 30,000 and the management of the Pittsburg team is making arrangements to pack the crowd in every available nook and corner of the park. Last year 25,000 saw the annual game and the interest seems to be even greater this year. The game will start at 2:30.

It would seem impossible to have more ideal conditions for the annual battle between the two rivals. Both will enter the game undefeated and with wonderful records back of them. The winner will be able to claim honors among the first three teams of the east and might even go further and claim top notch honors. Pitt has won four University of Pennsylvania, the Annapolis Middles and Carlisle Indians while W. & J. has won from Yale by a decisive score and from Lafayette college.

The two coaches, Glenn S. Warner of Pitt, former football mentor of the Carlisle Indians and Cornell University, and "Bob" Polwell, former Penn star, are considered among the leading football authorities of the east. Polwell has turned out winners at W. & J. for the past three years and this year with what seemed like mediocre material and without the services of such stars as Seeigel, Fleming, Patterson and other football luminaries, he has turned out another great team.

The name of Glenn Warner is known to every football enthusiast in the United States. It is linked with that of Houghton, Stagg and Vost when the greatest coaches of the east are enumerated. With the Carlisle Indians he turned out phenomenal teams, defeating all the members of the "Big Four" time and again. This is his first year at Pittsburg and he has started off with a rush. Pittsburgers who have watched the team closely say it is the best balanced aggregation the University has ever had and Walter Camp has even gone so far as to tab it the best team in the country today. When these champions clash at Forbes field November 6 the fur is sure to fly and the game will be one that will be talked of in western Pennsylvania for many years to come.

Pitt will have the services of all her stars for this game, including freshmen as the residence rule applied this year to the Penn game only. Next year no freshmen will be played in any games, including that with W. & J. Such stars as McLaren, Gougler, Sies, Seidel, McNulty and others will be ready for the W. & J. game and their presence will add strength. Miller, the crack halfback, who was injured in the Carlisle game, will be able to play until the Penn State game and it is just possible that he will not be out for the whole season. This is a hard blow to Pitt as Miller is a star in every department of the game. His defensive work is always a great aid to the other backs.

STUDY OF "SONATA" FORM OF MUSIC IS TAKEN UP

Musical Auxiliary Holds Regular Meeting and Takes up Interesting Program

An interesting meeting of the Musical Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening at the Frederick Piano company's room, when the study of the "Sonata" was taken up.

A paper on "Sonata Form" was read by Miss May Barth. The first movement of a Beethoven sonata was played by Miss Bertha Haines, the second movement of a Haydn sonata by Miss Leila Orange and the third movement of a Mozart sonata by Miss May Barth. Miss Greer of Monessen and Mrs. John Metz contributed solo numbers. A current event paper was read by Miss Isabella Dorbritz. Mrs. A. G. Lewis and Miss Marion Lewis were the hostess. The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening, November 16.

WAS QUITE TOO THOUGHTFUL

Husband Who Received Basket of Soft-Shell Crabs From Wife Saved the Bread for Himself.

"Yes, I've heard from my wife and she's going to hear from me. Down on the shore where she is they have the very finest soft-shell crabs that ever used a nipper, and when they're fried they show themselves for the kindly disposition critters they are. Well, this morning I got word from my wife that she was going to send some of 'em fried and ready to eat. 'A fine lot' is the way she told me about 'em, and I had visions of about a bushel of 'em; so I promptly notified friends in the East end that they were on the eats.

"When the package arrived at the office it wasn't as large as I had expected, but I told myself not to be greedy and decide to make a fair division. Division seemed easy, for the package contained two smaller packages. Opening one, I sampled the goods and found them worth while and then passed them around in the office. They lasted three minutes. Then with the other package neatly tied I took a car for the East end. This is where the drama approaches the 'smash'.

"My wife is a very thoughtful woman. When she provides a lunch she provides the trimmings. It was quite a little snack she wanted me to have at the office and she carefully put the crabs in one package and—

"Yes, you have it! When I proudly opened that package in the presence of my East end friends, I found that it contained four slices of bread!"—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Common Experience.

"As you travel through this vale of tears, is your faith in humanity strengthened or weakened?" asked the inquisitive person.

"It's a queer thing," answered the man who is easily worried. "I'll meet half a dozen people who are the right sort and strictly on the square. Then I'll run across a skunk who makes me forget all about the other six."

A Philosopher's Nightcap.

Many years ago I was in a northern country house in which Herbert Spencer was staying. At that time he suffered from sleeplessness, and one night on going to bed he said to me: "I am about to drink some hot brandy and water in order to restore the periodicity of my somniferous functions."—London Spectator.

ATHENA KNIT UNDERWEAR

Here are the features that give Athena its comfort, its daintiness and its tailored fit.

Sloping Shoulders and Sleeves Conform to the shoulders without wrinkling under arms.

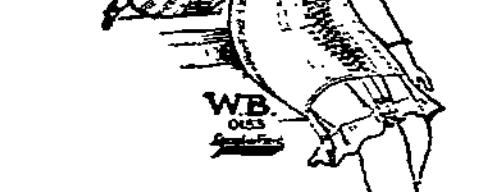

Perfect Shoulder-Stay
Keeps garment from stretching across the shoulder, and holds sleeve in place.

Curved Armhole
Brings arm seams to the natural curve of the shoulder and holds garment snugly and smoothly up under arm, doing away with unnecessary cloth.

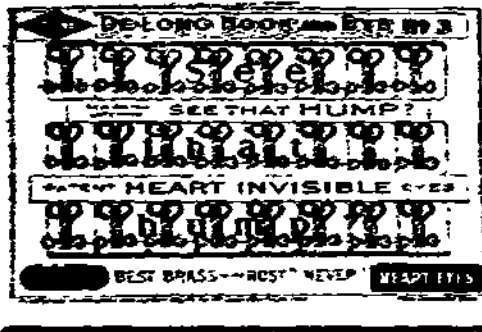

Three-Cornered Gusset
Is so shaped as to relieve the usual strain at the thigh. Insures greater comfort and longer wear.

Low-Neck Sleeveless
Just as a woman is fuller across the bust than the back, so this garment is made with extra fullness in front.

Patent Seat
This consists of a plait on each side of the back, instead of extra cloth in the middle where it causes discomfort. It stays closed and allows sufficient room, sitting or standing.

The Week For Values

Good Housekeeping Week

The Great Fall Exposition of Nationally Advertised Goods

NOVEMBER 1st to 6th, 1915

The 400,000 readers of The Good Housekeeping Magazine have been told over this country—that all Good Housekeeping stores will hold Good Housekeeping Week November 1st to 6th, and make special showings of nationally advertised goods. We are designated by this splendid magazine as the Good Housekeeping store for Charleroi and to fully carry out their aims, we place our whole store before you in dress up form with nationally advertised goods. The Fall Buying is on in earnest and the Big Store with its big stocks can and will supply your wants, and we anxiously await your coming. Let us know what you wish from the advertising of your favorite magazine and possibly we can furnish to you. Let us mention some important nationally advertised goods always in stock.

W. B. Corsets—one of the world's most famous Corsets—they make them for you form fitting, form building—important to get the best $1.00 up.

Nemo Corsets—the wonderful self reducing Corsets that has been so carefully modeled for the stout forms or the hard to fit—yet it builds the figure to portray the fashion in Dress.

Kaysers Silk Gloves, you know them. Centimeri Kid Gloves, the quality that counts. Athena Underwear for women and children. Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments, haven't you seen the ad "Mama I Want My Denton." Reuben Shirts for babies—Rube says himself there are a million worn every day. Nazareth Waists. Mentor Underwear for men, women and children. Buster Brown Hose and the famous Burson, no seam hose. Utopia, Yarns, De Long Hooks and Eyes, Mennen's Borated Talcum—the kind the trained nurses use. Pears Soap—Pear's is the world's standard for purity.

Nashua Woolnap Blankets—the manufacturer will send a Blanket, Doll size, that will give a little girl unbounded joy—send them 15c your name and address, we will give address—and mention our store. We sell Duckling Fleeces and this manufacturer will send the goods and pattern for 10c for a Dolls Kimona. Sanitas is that famous Wall Covering that you can wash off the dirt. Mohawk—the real, the genuine sheet, also pillow cases and bolsters, and so we could go on through this Big Store's stock. But we have the goods, Nationally Advertised, and we want you to come. We are also showing wonderful assortments of New Fall and Winter Waists and Skirts, Suits and Dresses, Coats and Furs. We clothe the whole family, men, women, boys and girls, children and the babies. Better visit Charleroi's Big Store during Good Housekeeping Week. NOV. 1st to 6th, 1915.

Prince Napoleon.

Prince Victor Jerome Frederic Napoleon, who has obtained permission of the Italian military authorities to go to the front, is the head of the Napoleon family. Ordinarily he lives in Brussels, having been expelled from France many years ago. He is a Parisian, however, by birth, and his sympathies with the allies are further cemented by the fact that his wife is Princess Clementine, daughter of King Leopold of Belgium, and his mother is a princess of the house of Savoy. It needed but the entry of a Napoleon to make the cast complete. —Dundee Advertiser.

ENTIRE REPUBLICAN

ing to the unofficial tabulation. Because of the closeness of the contest much interest will center in the official count. Jacobs carried the second, third, fifth and sixth precincts, but not by a sufficient majority to overcome Calvert's lead in the first and fourth.

Pollock ran considerably ahead for school director with his Republican colleague, John Campbell, stepping close behind. Pollock's total was 602 and Campbell's 545. Clark, Democrat was next high man with 471 votes and Martin, also a Democrat fourth with 431. The Socialist candidate strung along so far behind as to not even be fairly conspicuous. Still it must be admitted that the Socialists showed surprising strength in the borough balloting.

Paul Ryland ran away with the auditorship by an almost two to one vote over John Clutter, Democratic candidate.

The anticipated contest for constable failed to develop. George Stablein won with a vote of 534 over Benjamin Wilson, his nearest com-

W. Jones' tally was 284. Stablein's plurality over Wilson was 146. Chief of Police C. W. Albright for high constable ran high with 729 votes to James Myers' 415 a majority of 314.

Much interest centered in the amendments and there was a splendid vote out. The biggest favorable vote on any was that on the third for the enforcement of the workmen's compensation act. On this "yes" won 570 and "no" 118.

His name being the only one on the ballot, Judge Irwin easily carried away honors for the highest total vote, 951. George Chaney was the candidate of four parties for county engineer and received 937 votes. John O. Watson's vote for commissioner in Charleroi was 825, with A. P. Barnum next highest with 548. Hill was third man with 484 votes.

Horn was lost, with only 178.

S. L. Woodward's vote for sheriff over Frank E. Wickerham was more than a two to one vote, his total being 814 to 383 for Wickerham a plurality of 431.

James T. Heffran for coroner, A. V. Lewis for prothonotary, Dr. Alexander for treasurer, Isaac Baum for district attorney, Boyd C. Parrshall for register and C. E. Adams and W. W. Hawkins for poor director were Republicans well supported, the average plurality for each ranging from about 300 to 530.

In the congressional contest, such as it was, former Congressman Henry W. Temple was given a splendid send-off in Charleroi, his total vote being 675 to Carl E. Gibson's 343.
